St. Joe's Welcomes Fr. Ed Shellito, Maryknoll Father

This weekend, we welcome our friend and neighbor Fr. Edward Shellito of the Maryknoll Fathers and Brothers. Fr. Ed will be preaching at all the Masses, and telling us more about the missionary work of Maryknoll.

Fr. Ed has served as a missionary in the Philippines and Namibia, and will invite us to take part in the vital work of bringing Christ and his Gospel to all people. While visiting us, Fr. Ed would be happy to talk with any parishioners who are interested in doing overseas mission work as a Maryknoll priest, brother, or lay missionary.

Please consider learning more about the Maryknoll Society, and supporting them in their good work around the world. From Maryknollsociety.org: "We are a Catholic Society of priests and brothers based in the United States. We are dedicated to missionary work overseas in over 20 countries. Additionally, we animate Catholics in the United States to follow their own baptismal call to share God's compassion and love with the poor, the sick, and all those in need."

Liturgical Ministers Needed

As we continue to open up and more people come back to church there are many opportunities to serve at the liturgy! In particular, we are in need of additional Ministers of Hospitality (ushers) to welcome everyone who walks through the doors of St. Joe's.

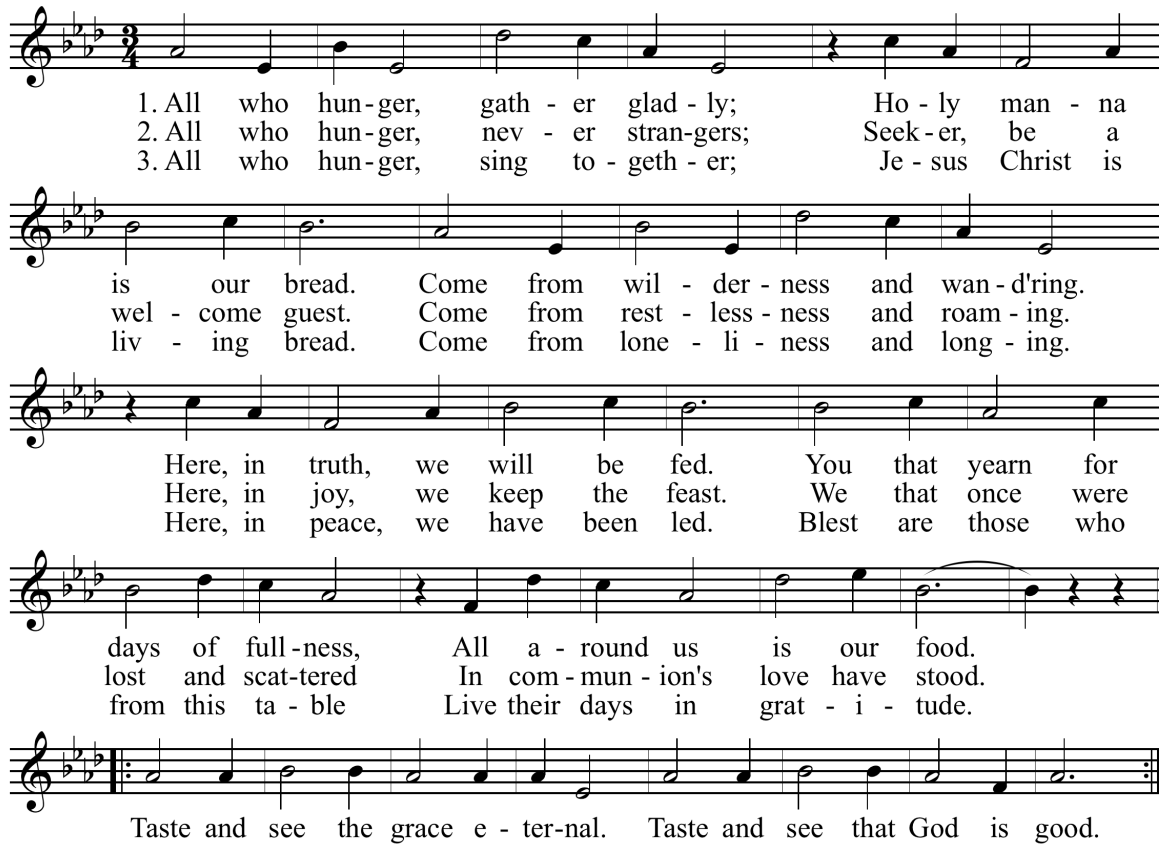

We need two additional ministers for Saturday evening, four for Sunday morning and three for Sunday evening. For more information, or to sign up, talk to one of the ushers at Mass or contact Pastoral Assistant for Liturgy and Music Robert McCaffery-Lent at Rmclent@stjosephparish.org.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to people of good will.

1. We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
2. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
3. For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

First Reading

Exodus 16:2-4, 12-15

The whole Israelite community grumbled against Moses and Aaron. The Israelites said to them, "Would that we had died at the LORD's hand in the land of Egypt, as we sat by our fleshpots and ate our fill of bread! But you had to lead us into this desert to make the whole community die of famine!"

Then the LORD said to Moses, "I will now rain down bread from heaven for you. Each day the people are to go out and gather their daily portion; thus will I test them, to see whether they follow my instructions or not.

"I have heard the grumbling of the Israelites. Tell them: In the evening twilight you shall eat flesh, and in the morning you shall have your fill of bread, so that you may know that I, the LORD, am your God."

In the evening quail came up and covered the camp. In the morning a dew lay all about the camp, and when the dew evaporated, there on the surface of the desert were fine flakes like hoarfrost on the ground. On seeing it, the Israelites asked one another, "What is this?" for they did not know what it was. But Moses told them, "This is the bread that the Lord has given you to eat."

Psalm

Psalm 78 The Lord Gave Them Bread From Heaven

Guimont

What we have heard and know, and what our fathers have declared to us, we will declare to the generation to come the glorious deeds of the Lord and his strength and the wonders that he wrought. Ref.

He commanded the skies above and opened the doors of heaven;
he rained manna upon them for food and gave them heavenly bread. Ref.

Man ate the bread of angels, food he sent them in abundance.
And he brought them to his holy land, to the mountains his right hand had won. Ref.

Second Reading

Ephesians 4:17, 20-24

Brothers and sisters: I declare and testify in the Lord that you must no longer live as the Gentiles do, in the futility of their minds; that is not how you learned Christ, assuming that you have heard of him and were taught in him, as truth is in Jesus, that you should put away the old self of your former way of life, corrupted through deceitful desires, and be renewed in the spirit of your minds, and put on the new self, created in God's way in righteousness and holiness of truth.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia

Alonso

"One does not live on bread alone, but by every word that comes forth from the mouth of God."

Gospel

John 6:24-35

When the crowd saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they themselves got into boats and came to Capernaum looking for Jesus. And when they found him across the sea they said to him, "Rabbi, when did you get here?" Jesus answered them and said, "Amen, amen, I say to you, you are looking for me not because you saw signs but because you ate the loaves and were filled. Do not work for food that perishes but for the food that endures for eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. For on him the Father, God, has set his seal." So they said to him, "What can we do to accomplish the works of God?" Jesus answered and said to them, "This is the work of God, that you believe in the one he sent." So they said to him, "What sign can you do, that we may see and believe in you? What can you do? Our ancestors ate manna in the desert, as it is written: He gave them bread from heaven to eat." So Jesus said to them, "Amen, amen, I say to you, it was not Moses who gave the bread from heaven; my Father gives you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world." So they said to him, "Sir, give us this bread always." Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst."

Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us (men) and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
All bow.
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
All stand upright.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Offertory Song

Jesus Christ, Bread Of Life

Dvorak/Schaubel

Thankfully, here we bring simple bread and wine. Joyfully, we partake of this holy food.
For the life of the world, once and for all time. Ref. Offering all we have, praise and gratitude. Ref.

Holy, Holy, Holy

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Mystery of Faith

Save us savior of the world, for by your cross and resurrection, you have set us free.

Or

When we eat this bread and drink this cup,
we proclaim your death, O Lord, until you come again.

Lamb of God

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world,
grant us peace.

Communion

I Receive the Living God

Clement Jacob

Jesus says: I am the Bread sent to you from God Most High. Jesus says: I am the Life, raised in triumph from the dead.
Take and eat, and you will live; you need never fear to die. As one Body now remain, members joined to me, the Head.

Jesus says: I am the Vine, far from whom no life can grow. Jesus says: I am the Day, shining brightly through your night.
If you join yourself to me, a rich harvest you will know. Welcome me, and you will walk by the Spirit's guiding light.

Jesus says: I am the Way, and my path is straight and true. Jesus says: I am the Love which can bind you close to me.
Follow me to where I lead; there my Father waits for you. Those who know this gift I bring will find true community.

Jesus says: I am the Truth. If you follow close to me, Jesus says: I am the Peace which the world cannot bestow.
You will know me in your heart, and my word will make Learn to love and live in me, and in you my Reign will grow.
you free. Jesus says: I am the Lamb, and my death set sinners free.
Those who drink the cup I drink must take up this work with me.

PARISH LIFE & FAITH JUSTICE

Welcome Fr. Greg Celio, SJ

Next weekend, Fr. Greg Celio, SJ, will be guest-presiding and preaching at all of the weekend Masses. Fr. Greg teaches at Seattle Prep, is on the Jesuits West Vocations Team, and lives at the Jesuit community house with Fr. Ryan and Fr. Matthew. He's been involved at St. Joe's with Youth Masses and other community functions.

Join us for Mass and say hello to Fr. Greg!

A Visit from Nurturing Roots – August 15th

Mark your calendars for the 9:30am Mass on August 15th! Nyema Clark, Executive Director of Nurturing Roots Urban Farm, will be visiting St. Joe's to discuss urban farming, healthy living, and the budding (pun intended) partnership between St. Joe's and Nurturing Roots.

She'll have a short message during Mass, and then will be talking with parishioners on the lawn after Mass. Kids of all ages will have fun with the Nurturing Roots "smoothie bike" (which is as fun as it sounds!) and everyone will have a chance to learn how they can get involved in this amazing initiative.

Racial Justice Book Group

Please join us at the next Racial Justice Book Group Zoom meeting on August 11 at 7pm when we will discuss the book, A Promised Land by Barack Obama. Contact racialjusticebookgroup@stjosephparish.org to receive the Zoom Link.

Volunteer Opportunities at Habitat Interfaith Build

FAITH JUSTICE

From your kitchen to neighbors in need: St. Joe's and Facing Homelessness

St. Joe's has been partnering with Facing Homelessness, a direct outreach organization, since 2020. Facing Homelessness provides many services to our houseless neighbors in the U District, including the innovative BLOCK Project tiny house program, but their signature service is the Window of Kindness, an open free lunch + supplies program.

The Window of Kindness serves 30-40 people each day, three times a week. In addition to hygiene kits, clothing, tents, and snacks, each client gets a homemade sandwich for lunch. Almost all of those sandwiches are made with love by St. Joe's parishioners – thank you for the hundreds of sandwiches that you prepare each week!

The Window of Kindness is preparing to open one more day per week, and needs our help. Can you make lunch sandwiches, or donate any prepackaged snacks, hygiene kits, or (new) men's clothing? Let us know. You can drop off donations in the hospitality room any time the church is open (deliveries occur on Tuesdays, so sandwiches should be dropped off on Sunday or Monday).

Email markp@stjosephparish.org for more information or to let us know that you can help out!

You can get involved in other ways, too! Facing Homelessness is always looking for volunteers to help staff the Window of Kindness, work on BLOCK project construction sites, help around the office, or work on special projects. To get involved, simply scan the QR code or visit: facinghomelessness.volunteerhub.com

Ignatian Solidarity Network: A Parish Journey for Racial Justice

August 4 @ 3:00 pm - 4:15 pm EDT on Zoom

In the Spring of 2021, Saint Ignatius San Francisco offered a 20-week program that paired education on race through a historical, sociological, and theological lens with the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius. Join creator Teresa Marie Cariño to learn about the program and how you can adapt it to your parish.

July LGBTQ: It's All About Love

Welcome back to St. Joe's monthly LGBTQ Column. We're here to affirm and support our LGBTQ parishioners and their families, and to provide resources for our parish community. On June 27 we gathered under the Everyone Belongs Pride flag on St. Joe's front lawn to celebrate. Lots of rainbows: cupcakes, rings, leis, and "God Loves Me" necklaces. Families, elders, young people, old friends, new friends. A great time was had by all! If you weren't able to make it this year, come join us in 2022.

This month's scripture passage is from St Paul's first letter to the Corinthians (chapter 12, verse 13):

"Just as a body, though one, has many parts, but all its parts form one body, so it is with Christ. For we were all baptized by one Spirit so as to form one body - whether Jews or Gentiles, slaves or free - and we were all given the one Spirit to drink."

Telling Our Stories

Alan Turing

Did you know the man who broke the Enigma Code, hastening the end of WWII, was gay? Alan Turing was a brilliant mathematician. The work he did as a codebreaker defeated the Nazis and helped bring the war to a close. His work laid the foundation for digital computers and artificial intelligence. He was celebrated as a war hero until 1952 when he was convicted of homosexuality under a Victorian law and forced to undergo chemical castration. By 1954 he was alone and forgotten. That same year he dipped an apple in cyanide and committed suicide. His story breaks my heart. If you want to know more about him, watch the movie "Breaking the Code" with Derek Jacobi. You can find it on YouTube. In 1967 the British government overturned the law used to convict Turing. In 2013 he was posthumously pardoned by the Queen. Now he is on a postage stamp and the 50-pound English note.

Popular Culture

On June 1, LEGO released a new kit "Everyone is Awesome" in honor of Pride month. It was created by Matthew Ashton, a Master LEGO Designer, for his desk at work. When Matthew suggested LEGO make "Everyone is Awesome" an official kit, the company loved the idea. It became one of LEGO's most popular kits of the 2021 Spring/Summer season and sold out in days online. Matthew wanted to use LEGOs to build something that would make the world a more open and welcoming place for gay people because he remembered growing up a gay boy being teased and bullied. Thank you, Matthew.

Books of the Month

And Tango Makes Three by Justin Richardson and Peter Parnell. The true story of two male penguins at the Central Park Zoo in New York City who together care for an abandoned egg until it hatches and raise Tango as their own. (A board book.)

Coming Out, Coming Home by Sarah C. Wheeler. A guide for helping families adjust to a gay or lesbian child. Recommended by PFLAG (Parents and Friends of Lesbians and Gays)

Quote of the Month: "Love and compassion are necessities, not luxuries. Without them, humanity cannot survive." ~ The Dalai Lama

Thanks for reading. Take care. See you next month.
